THE COMPANY

Unifi is one of the largest and most diversified processors of yarn in the world, marketing products to over 1,000 customers worldwide. Unifi, together with its subsidiaries, is engaged in the business of texturing polyester and nylon filament fiber to produce polyester and nylon yarns, dyed yarns and spandex yarns covered with nylon and polyester. Unifi sells its polyester and nylon products to knitters and weavers that produce fabrics for the apparel, industrial, ladies' and men's hosiery, home furnishings, automobile upholstery and other end use markets. Unifi also has a 34% ownership in Parkdale America, LLC, which is one of the United States' largest processors of spun cotton yarn and cotton blend yarns.

Texturing polyester and nylon filament fiber involves the processing of partially oriented yarn ("POY"), which is either raw polyester or nylon filament fiber purchased from chemical manufacturers, to give it greater bulk, strength, stretch, consistent dyeability and a softer feel, thereby making it suitable for use in knitting and weaving of fabrics. The texturing process involves the use of high speed machines to draw, heat and twist the POY to produce yarn having various physical characteristics, depending on its ultimate end use. The POY used by Unifi is produced from the polymerization, extrusion and spinning of a chemical base. The primary suppliers of POY to Unifi are E.I. DuPont de Nemours and Co., Nan Ya Plastics Corporation of America, Hoechst Celanese Corporation and Wellman Industries, Inc., with the majority of Unifi's POY being supplied by DuPont.

Unifi maintains a total of 16 manufacturing and warehousing facilities and one central distribution center in North Carolina, one manufacturing and related warehousing facility in Staunton, Virginia, one central distribution center in Fort Payne, Alabama, and one manufacturing and related warehousing facility in Letterkenny, County of Donegal, Republic of Ireland. Unifi maintains sales offices in New York, New York, Coleshill, England, Lyon, France, and Oberkotzau, Germany, and has a representative office in Tokyo, Japan.

Unifi also leases its corporate headquarters building at 7201 West Friendly Avenue, Greensboro, North Carolina, telephone number (910) 294-4410.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds from the sale of the Common Stock to which this Prospectus relates will be received by the Selling Shareholders, and Unifi will not receive any such proceeds.

SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

The Selling Shareholders, listed below, acquired the Shares in exchange for shares of SI Holding, which was acquired by Unifi in a merger transaction consummated on November 14, 1997. The offer and sale of the Shares was exempt from registration under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 4(2) thereof. The Company has agreed to register the Shares for resale by the Selling Shareholders.

The following table sets forth, as of the date hereof, the names of the Selling Shareholders, the shares of Common Stock owned by each of the Selling Shareholders prior to this offering, the shares of Common Stock to be offered from time to time by each of them, and the shares of Common Stock to be owned by each of the Selling Shareholders after completion of this offering. The information concerning the Selling Shareholders may change from time to time, and any such changed information will be set forth in supplements to this Prospectus if and when necessary. The Company is not aware of any agreements, arrangements or understandings with respect to the sale of any of the Shares. The Shares are being registered to permit public secondary trading of the Shares, and the Selling Shareholders may offer the Shares for resale from time to time. Except as provided below, none of the Selling Shareholders has had a material relationship with Unifi within the past three years other than as a result of the acquisition and ownership of the Shares. See "Plan of Distribution."

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Unifi understands that, as of the date hereof, the Selling Shareholders have not made any arrangement for the offering or sale of the Shares. Brokers, dealers or agents may participate in such transactions as agents and may, in such capacity, receive brokerage commissions, discounts or concessions in amounts to be negotiated at the time (which compensation may be in excess of customary commissions) from the Selling Shareholders or from purchasers of such securities. Brokers, dealers or agents may also purchase and resell shares of Common Stock of Unifi for their own account. The Selling Shareholders may indemnify any broker, dealers or agents that participate in such transactions against liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act. The Selling Shareholders and such brokers, dealers or agents may be considered "underwriters" as that term is defined by the Securities Act. Any commissions, discounts or profits received by such brokers, dealers or agents in connection with the foregoing transactions may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. Any broker, dealer or agent may act as a broker, dealer or agent on behalf of one or more of the Selling Shareholders in connection with the offering of certain of the Shares of Selling Shareholders.

To comply with the securities laws of certain jurisdictions, if applicable, the Shares will be offered or sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain jurisdictions, the Shares may not be offered or sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in such jurisdictions or unless an exemption from such registration or qualification is available and is complied with.

Pursuant to applicable rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, any person engaged in a distribution of the Shares may be limited in its ability to engage in market making activities with respect to such Shares. In addition and without limiting the foregoing, the Selling Shareholders will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of such Shares. All of the foregoing may affect the marketability of such Shares.

The Shares offered hereby may be offered and sold by the Selling Shareholders from time to time in transactions on the NYSE, in negotiated transactions, at fixed prices which may be changed, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to the prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices. Such sales may be made pursuant to an underwritten offering or pursuant to one or more of the following methods (among others): (a) purchases by a broker or dealer as principal and resale by such broker or dealer for its account pursuant to this Prospectus; (b) ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker solicits purchasers; and (c) block trades in which a broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the Shares as agent but may take a position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction. In addition, any Shares that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to the Prospectus, as supplemented.

At the time a particular offer of the Shares is made, to the extent required, a supplemental Prospectus will be distributed, which will set forth the number of Shares being offered and the terms of the offering, including the name or names of any underwriters, dealers or agents, the purchase price paid by any underwriter for the Shares, any discounts, commissions and other items constituting compensation from the Selling Shareholders and any discounts, concessions or commissions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers.

The Selling Shareholders will act independently of Unifi in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner and size of each sale. Sales of the Shares are, in general, expected to be made at the market price prevailing at the time of each such sale; however, prices in negotiated transactions may differ considerably.

The Shares were originally issued to the Selling Shareholders pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act provided by Section 4(2) thereof. Unifi agreed to register the Shares under the Securities Act. Unifi further agreed to pay the expenses and fees incurred in connection with registration of the Shares under Federal law and the qualification of the Shares for sale under applicable state laws and to pay the attorneys' fees for the Selling Shareholders up to an aggregate of $7,500. The Selling Shareholders will pay any other fees and expenses which they may incur in connection with their sales of the Shares.
